

COOLLY SHOT BY HIS WIFE.

IN COURT WITH A BULLET IN HIS BACK.

SHE SAYS THAT HE IS A SWINDLER—USING HER AS A DECOY—THIRY SCHEMES.

A middle-aged man with iron gray hair and rather commanding appearance, which was heightened by a pair of well-cut clothing, entered the Court yesterday.

"I want a warrant for the arrest of my wife," he said to Judge Murray.

"You have been shot?" queried the justice in rather a surprised manner.

"Yes," the applicant answered and repeated that his wife had shot him. "She shot me in the back yesterday, and the bullet is there still."

He gave his name as John M. McDuff, of No. 483 Lexington-st., and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Minnie McDuff of the same address.

She was brought to the court in the afternoon. She is young, probably more than thirty years of age, and was stylishly dressed in dark clothing.

Gloves covered her hands and diamond earrings glittered in her ears. Her husband stepped to the stand and without a word testified to the facts of the case.

"I have been shot," he said, "and the bullet is in my back."

"Yesterday morning my wife quarrelled with me for not giving her more spending money. She wanted $300 a month, and I can't give her more."

"I told her that I could not give her more, and she was very angry. She said that she would have me arrested and sent to jail."

"I told her that I would not let her do that, and she said that she would have me arrested and sent to jail."

NEW-YORK

DECK LOAD. The captain of the Harding said, but he was three feet of water in the vessel's hold, but he was not in need of assistance. On November 23

the captain of the Seaward declared it unsafe to proceed further with his vessel in a leaking condition, and

and out into the Delaware breakwater, from which he was towed to this city.

The ship Emily F. Whitney, from Antwerp, arrived at port yesterday. Her captain said he was off

Fire Island on November 24, but was blown to sea

so far that he was not able to make it again yesterday.

The schooner Lizzie Chadwick, from Savannah, reported that on November 25 she encountered a northwest gale off Hatteras in which she lost her spanker.

NEW-YORK

FACE WAS DISCOLORED. He had died from suffocation.

The unfortunate man had dug a large hole, under the boiler, intending to bury it. He had dug too far, and undermined the rock, which fell upon him. The doctors said that he might have been planned there for a day, or perhaps had died in a few minutes.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS TO TWO GIRLS.

THEY ARE FREQUENTLY FOUND TIED AND GAGGED

IN OUT-OF-THE-WAY PLACES.

The people of North Westfield, in Union County,

N. J., are much excited over a mysterious case of disappearance of two children of H. J. Holmes, an old and respected resident. Mr. Holmes owns a farm, but leaves it in care of his wife and son while he pursues the trade of a carriage maker, and conducts his business in the city.

These strange occurrences have been practiced in daylight, but during the temporary absence of the members of the family.

His wife, Mrs. Holmes, is about eleven years old.

She said that the first time she was attacked she was in the garden, when some one grasped her around the body, placed a cloth over her face, and carried her behind the barn, where she remained for some time. She was unconscious, but her brother found her lying on the ground with her eyes bandaged and her mouth and ears filled with clay. Her clothing was torn, and she was thought her assailant was a man. Two days later the younger child was heard screaming and the mother found her lying on the ground with her mouth and ears filled with clay. She was unconscious, but her brother found her lying on the ground with her mouth and ears filled with clay. She was unconscious, but her brother found her lying on the ground with her mouth and ears filled with clay. She was unconscious, but her brother found her lying on the
